THE BECOMING AUTHORITY ECOSYSTEM

For women who've arrived. The next becoming is being known for it.

I help women leaders get known beyond their job title. Through their words, their book and their community, the right opportunities find them.

For: Muslim women founders, leaders and executives (and every woman leader) building a portfolio career beyond one employer.

HOW WE WORK

3	clients at most. This is boutique work.
6 mo	minimum, because being known takes time.
Me	Strategy, ideas and voice come from me.

I see your next door before you do, and walk you through it.

Fathima Samreen. 7+ years writing for leaders in 3 countries. Books since 2019. SIWAA Award 2025, Changemaker.

I tell you the truth, even when it is hard.

One client left upset at my honest feedback. Three months later she came back, ready to build.

More of the right people know you, trust you and ask how to work with you.

An honest note: I don't promise a set number of clients or a full waitlist. Your offer and follow-up matter too. I build the trust that brings the right people to you.
